

ENERGYASSETS

Electricity Networks

Energy Assets Electricity Networks is an Ofgem regulated Independent Distribution Network Operator (IDNO) working under an electricity distribution licence.

Excellence

We strive to provide the best utility 'final mile' solutions for gas network adoption

We've already contracted more than 120,000 electricity supply points

Value

Our new and improved payment process is designed with you in mind

Legals made easy

Enjoy a single point of contact for dealing with any legal queries

A flexible approach to business

We're your one-stop for electric networks

Our people are on the board of various key industry bodies and panels

Innovation

Bespoke asset-based innovation and management advice tailored for individual ICPs

Short timescales
Swift delivery
Speedy invoicing

Our operators are trained to provide expert support

and are always up to date with the latest legislation

Supply chain

Solid supply chain relationships

Technical experience and know-how

Our UK-wide delivery team are equipped with the skills and tools to design creative solutions for your needs

Our operators are trained to provide expert support

and are always up to date with the latest legislation

Supply chain

Solid supply chain relationships

